

Justin Z. Goldin Student Caring Award

SCHOLARSHIP TO PROMOTE STUDENT PARTICIPATION AT THE ANNUAL IAHC CONFERENCE

The award is funded by Marlienne Goldin in memory of her son Justin Z. Goldin who embodied caring as an Emergency Medical Technician, a Volunteer at the World Trade Center on 9/11, and a Registered Nurse. After Justin attended the IAHC Conference in Australia he became an avid student of Caring Science. An award of $1000.00 is offered to offset student expenses for conference participation.

Purpose of the Award

- The purpose of this award is to provide financial support to a student of nursing to attend the Annual IAHC Conference.

Eligibility Criteria

- Applicants must be a student enrolled in an accredited college, or university pursuing a Baccalaureate, Masters or Doctorate Degree.

Process and Expectations

- The student submits an Application Packet with the following contents:
- A two-page paper describing how attendance at the conference will enhance understanding of caring science in nursing.
- A separate cover page with 1. Applicant's name. 2. Contact information (address, phone number, and email). 3. College/university where student is enrolled.
- A reference letter from a faculty member who knows his/her work.
- Submit Application to the IAHC Scholarship & Award Committee @ scholarships@humancaring.org ).

Post Award Responsibilities

- At presentations or in publications, funded research and scholarly works should indicate that it is “Funded in part by the IAHC Justin Goldin Student Award.”
- Applicant must register for the annual IAHC conference to assure proper processing and recording of participation. Please indicate on the registration form that you are an award recipient.
- Respond to annual Scholarship Survey.
